

SLA Breach Analysis for IT Operations (April)

Leonardo Pérez

KPI overview

180

Incidents
Analyzed

52

SLA Breaches

29%

Breach Rate

71%

SLA
Compliance
Rate

Key Observations

Critical Priority

P2 incidents had the highest number of SLA breaches.

Team Impact

The Application team accounted for the highest breach volume.

Breach Analysis

Priority Findings

P1 has the highest breach rate, while P2 contributes the highest number of SLA breaches.

Team Impact

The Application team accounted for 19 SLA breaches during this period.

Root Causes

Analysis shows change-related issue is the top one cause with an amount of 11 SLA breaches

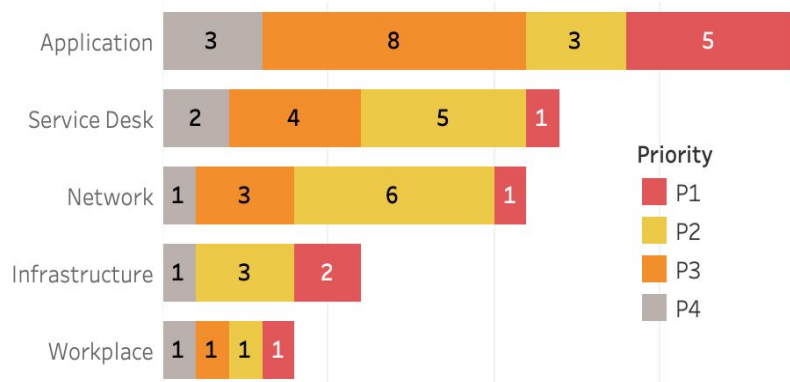

Critical Risk Areas

Key vulnerabilities identified in change validation, vendor escalation and Knowledge gap

Breach Rate % by Priority

SLA Breaches by Support Team and Priority

Recommended Actions

Process Optimization

Strengthen change validation

Team Collaboration

Work with the Application team to reduce breach volume.

Instructional Update

Improve Application and Service Desk work instructions to reduce knowledge gap

Governance

Implement a weekly SLA review with team leads.

Vendor Management

Review vendor SLA commitments and escalation paths to reduce dependency-related delays.

Quality Assurance

Review teams with high volume to prevent recurrence.

Action Plan

P2 escalation process

Owned by Incident Manager • 2 weeks

Analyze Application SLA breaches

Owned by Application Lead • 2 weeks

Implement weekly SLA review

Owned by Service Delivery Manager • Weekly

Review high ticket volume

Owned by Service Desk Lead • 1 week

Executive Summary

The analysis reviewed 180 incidents from the last reporting period. 52 incidents breached SLA, resulting in a 29% breach rate. P2 incidents represented the highest breach volume, with 19 breached tickets. The Application team had the highest number of breaches. Key improvement areas include strengthen change validation, knowledge gap, and dependency management.